The article starts with a photo of a group of people. The text mentions that in 2019, L V Prasad Eye Institute conducted 3160 cataract surgeries. The article also highlights that the institute also conducted 1885 medical camps and screened 25450 patients.

The article further states that a total of 221 cataract surgeries were conducted during the year. The institute also conducted 1020 free surgeries for the elderly at their clinics.

A significant number of patients were screened for various eye conditions. The article highlights that 345 patients were screened for glaucoma, 453 for diabetes, and 291 for macular degeneration.

The article also mentions that the institute conducted 2083 diagnostic tests and treated 9870 patients.

The article concludes with a statement that the institute aims to continue its mission of providing quality eye care to all.

The article also includes an infographic of the institute's infrastructure.

The article ends with a photo of a group of people and a contact information box with the institute's website www.lvpei.org.